7:10 PM	Discussion In view of the recent murders of black men and women, it is also important for HCOREI to completely understand the following statement made by Andre Leon Talley, a black fashion designer and journalist. He was described by a biographer as being “completely unaware of his blackness, that the concept of his being a Negro was completely submerged.” Talley responded, “Racism moves under the epidermis as a constant, constant reality. It’s a part of the fabric of our existence.”

7:20 PM Discussion
Covert versus Overt racism Triangle
